Is there any financial assistance available for this program?

Yes, income-qualified families may receive a discount of up to $1000 if they are approved for the Milpitas Assistance Program. If approved as a very low-income family (Tier 1), you will receive 75% off until you have reached a family annual maximum discount of $1000. Those approved as low-income families (Tier 2) receive 50% up to an annual family maximum discount of $750. Those approved as temporary hardships (Tier 3), receive 75% off to a six-month maximum of $750.

It is important to note, if approved, the discount will be expended before the school year ends. You will need to be prepared to pay for the program on your own for a month or two depending on how many children you have enrolled. If you have already used some MAP funds (i.e. for summer camp), you may not have the full amount available.
